

Broward County Hurricane Preparedness – Debris Removal

Following a storm, residents of Broward County may have a variety of wastes to dispose of, including downed trees, roofing material, damaged furniture, household garbage and recycling. Each city is responsible for determining the best method for removal of these items from a residential area. Residents need to listen to local news channels for updates on collection issues or contact their city directly for information.

Back to the USAG-Miami Hurricane Preparedness Page